EUROPE'S FATE HINGES ON TALK IN PARIS TODAY

Lloyd George to Ask Poincare for Plan.

BY HENRY WALES.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
CANNES, Jan. 13.—Prime Minister Lloyd George, the rest of the British delegation, and the bulk of the French delegation are proceeding to Paris tonight, arriving at 3 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Lloyd George will have conversations in Paris with President Millerand and Premier Poincare tomorrow and Sunday morning. These conversations are expected to elucidate whether France will sit in peace councils of Europe.

Mr. Lloyd George will stop at the Carlton hotel, leaving Paris at noon on Sunday, as he has an important engagement in London Sunday evening. Efforts will be made to reach an agreement between the British and the new French government on an Anglo-French guarantee treaty and on reparations.

It was agreed D. LLOYD GEORGE tentatively this afternoon by the reparations commission at which M. Ducloux, the French member and chairman of the commission, was present, that the Germans pay $1,000,000 gold marks ($7,750,000) every ten days beginning with Jan. 15. It is believed that Germany will pay three or four of these installments, covering the January and February amounts due, and before the first of March a reparations moratorium will be agreed on. Within fifteen days Germany must submit a plan for reform of its national budget and financial circulation.

Mr. Lloyd George, in a conversation with the press this evening, stated that the Cannes conference had succeeded in all its primary objectives, only the matter of the Anglo-French alliance and endorsement of a temporary reparations settlement being still open. The new French government headed by M. Poincare is expected to make a reply on these two questions tomorrow.

Defense Treaty with Belgium.

Great Britain will make a separate defensive treaty guaranteeing the neutrality of Belgium with the government at Brussels through ordinary diplomatic procedure within the next few days. Replying to Sir. Bonomi's request that Italy be not excluded from a special arrangement between France, Belgium, and Great Britain, Mr. Lloyd George stated that an Anglo-Italian treaty would be discussed at the Genoa conference which begins on March 8.

Dr. Rathenau, the chief of the German delegation here, is reported as having practically proposed the acquisition of the Berlin government to the ten day payment plan for $1,000,000 gold marks suggested today.

THE WEATHER

SATURDAY, JANUARY 14, 1922.
Sunrise, 7:16. Sunset, 4:43. Moonrise, 6:31 p. m. on 14th.
Fair, with light clouds and some drizzle Saturday, with rising temperature; Sunday, with fair, fresh southwest winds Saturday, shifting to moderate west Sunday.
Illinois—Somewhat unsettled in north, fair in south portion Saturday; rising temperature; Sunday probably fair.

POINCARÉ TO GO SOON?

BY JOHN CLAYTON.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
PARIS, Jan. 13.—Premier Poincaré is coming to power with a small majority on a platform which demands full reparations payments from Germany.

EVANSTON MAYOR AND WIFE PARTED

Mrs. Pearsons Goes Home to Her Father.

Harry P. Pearsons, the mayor of Evanston, and his wife are living apart. Divorce court proceedings are possible, it became known yesterday.

Rumors of the break have been current in Evanston for three weeks. There have been several quarrels, it was said, and the efforts of friends of the mayor and Mrs. Pearsons failed to restore amity.

Nothing definite was known, however until yesterday, when Mrs. Pearsons returned to Evanston from New York. Instead of going to the residence of her husband, she went to the home of her father, Rollin A. Keyes, 1210 Forest avenue. She there substantiated some of the rumors.

AUTO SPEEDERS EMPTY SHOTGUN AT POLICEMAN

Dies While Racing at Seventy Miles.

William Peterson, motorcycle policeman at Winthrop Harbor, Ill., was shot to death yesterday by one of five men in a large blue touring car he had raced at breakneck speed for seven miles to arrest the occupants, believed to have been running whiskey.

Part of the wild flight was through the heart of Zion City, Ill. At times the speed of the car and motorcycle reached seventy miles an hour.

Near Beach, Ill., between Zion City and Waukegan, Peterson's machine overhauled the automobile. As he yelled an order to the driver to halt, one of the five men leaped from the rear seat, took deliberate aim with a shotgun, and fired two charges of buckshot into the policeman's abdomen.

Thrown Into a Ditch.

The motorcycle swerved into a ditch beside the road, hurling Peterson ten feet into a field. He was dead when Melvin Jordan, 19 years old, of Beach, and George W. Pavlik, 24, and Lyle Fast, farmers who were watching the wild chase and saw its finish, reached his side.

News of the shooting was immediately telephoned to Waukegan and other towns on the road to Chicago and police traps were laid for the death car. Automobile posses of deputy sheriffs and police also began immediately to patrol all the surrounding country in search of the machine, but late last night it had not been found.

The chase which ended in the shooting of Policeman Peterson began in Kenosha, Wis. The car with its five occupants, all believed to have been colored men, shot through that city at a high rate of speed. A deputy sheriff undertook to halt them and, failing, started in pursuit.

Waukegan, Peterson took up the pursuit for him. With muffer open, the big machine dashed into Zion City. Residents there watched in horror as it tore over a half mile stretch of rough, unpaved street, expecting momentarily to see the car smashed and its occupants killed.

Half a mile behind it came Policeman Peterson on his motorcycle. He did not slow down a fraction of a mile per hour, and when the town was reached he was only a quarter of a mile away.

With both machines making their utmost speed they roared toward Beach, Jordan, Pavlik, and Fast, working near the road, heard the throb of the motors when they were two miles away and watched the chase.

Fires with Shotgun.

When the car was almost opposite where they were working Peterson drew alongside it. The three men saw one of the men in the rear seat turn, yell something, then aim with the shotgun and fire.

When the three reached Peterson's side the blue car had raced into the village of Beach and disappeared.

One of the men ran to telephone word of the shooting to Waukegan. As the others attempted to carry Peterson to Beach, Deputy Sheriff Wilson of Kenosha, driving to Waukegan with his wife, came along in his automobile.

Peterson was loaded into his car and rushed to Victory Memorial hospital in Waukegan. Physicians there said buckshot from the shotgun had struck him in the abdomen and near the heart and that he was dead even before he was placed in the deputy's machine.

Shows Seventy-Two Mile Speed.

Waukegan police who went to the scene of the shooting said the register on Peterson's motorcycle showed that the machine had reached a speed of seventy-two miles an hour in the chase.

Pavlik and Jordan told the police the automobile was running at least sixty-five miles an hour when the shots were fired from it.

The shooting aroused intense feeling in villages and towns along the north shore, and all night long volunteers assisted police and deputies in the search for the blue car and the slayers.

Bar "Salome" From Opera; "Too Exotic"

"Salome" has been banished from Chicago.

The exotic opera in which Mary Garden appeared as the daughter of Herodias will not be played here again this year. The new Civic Opera association had already determined not to produce it here next year, or in any of the succeeding years in which that organization controls.

But it had been announced for next Monday—the new association not yet being in authority—and the relegation of the much disputed opera to the discard was quietly made yesterday by a change in next week's opera list. Until yesterday the advertisement of the Chicago Opera company had read:

"Monday, Jan. 16, 'Salome,' Garden, Magin, Dufranne, Reynolds."

Changed "By Request."

But in last night's newspapers it appeared:

"Monday, Jan. 16 (by request), 'Pelleas and Melisande.'"

Officials of the opera company were reluctant to discuss the sudden change in program. A. C. Shaw, business manager, when asked why the shift was made, said:

"I can't say. I haven't heard of any criticisms of 'Salome' having been offered."

It is known, however, that pressure has been brought to bear upon the opera management by prominent patrons to eliminate "Salome" from the company's repertoire. Some of these patrons are among the leaders in the present movement for the financing of the opera company for next season.

No Authority, but Influence.

While these persons have no authority to dictate to the present management, naturally enough they are not without influence and their expressions of opinion have been given consideration.

Some of these subscribers had refused to attend previous performances of "Salome." They have declared that the opera was unclean and that Herodias' daughter as depicted in the Oscar Wilde version of her story was merely a victim of perversion, demoted by an unnatural passion. Despite this, the two previous performances had been played to packed houses.

The protest against the opera was entirely on the part of its patrons. The city officials have not objected, so far as is known, to its production.

CHARGES HOLDUP BY MOTOR POLICE OF LINCOLN PARK

Warrants for the arrest of Motorcycle Policemen Morley and Carlson of the Lincoln park police force were placed in the hands of Lieut. Alex Jensen of the detective bureau last night for service. They were sworn out by Norbert Egan of 6827 Wayne avenue in the Sheffield avenue police court.

Egan charges that the two policemen assaulted and robbed him when they stopped him while he was driving his auto in Sheridan road near Montrose avenue. According to his story, the policemen were on foot at the time. They halted him, he said, and one of them, jumping into his auto, struck him twice, then unscrewed an $800 diamond stud which he wore.

The policemen deny his charges and say they are the result of spite.

Injured in Tunnel, Crawls for 15 Hours to Reach Aid

New York, Jan. 13.—Clifford Bliss, a switchman, last night fell off a Long Island train near the Brooklyn end of the East river tunnel, breaking an arm and several ribs and suffering internal injuries. Fifteen hours later he appeared at the other end of the tunnel, in Manhattan, after having crawled on hands and knees through the tube, dodging trains.

Woolwine talked for hours, breaking all his own previous efforts for length of address. He was excited. His hands trembled continually. His face was pale, save for two carmine spots on his cheek bones that stood out with startling effect. His voice was hoarse at times; sometimes it throbbed and choked and took on a tone of anguish. Sometimes it was loud and angry; sometimes it was but a whisper, a sob, a voice crying softly over a grave.

BURCH JURORS ARE LOCKED UP FOR THE NIGHT

Rumor Says 10 to 2 for Conviction.

BY EDWARD DOHERTY.
Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 13.—[Special.]—After deliberating six hours, the jury that holds the future of Arthur Courtenay Burch was deadlocked and Judge Sidney Reeve gave instructions they should be locked up until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. It is reported that they are ten to two for conviction.

It is further reported that the two holding out for acquittal are Mrs. Eva De Mott and George R. Baker. Mrs. Nellie D. Graham, it is said, has been chosen foreman.

It was 10 o'clock when the judge adjourned court for the day. Burch was brought in across the "bridge of sighs" from his prison cell, and one could hear the other prisoners calling to him words of cheer.

Burch White—Bibi Cocky.

He was very white. Evidently he believed the jury was about to come in. He walked around to his seat, and then he saw a friend, and smiled—still nervous, still cocky.

His father sat not far away, ashen, grey, a tired man. And a little beyond was John D. Kennedy, father of Belton Kennedy, for whose murder Burch is on trial. He is smoking a cigar, forgetful of the fact that court is in session.

Mr. Kennedy is nervous and shows it. The Rev. W. A. Burch is nervous, and shows it, too. But in a far different way.

The case went to the jury at 3:56 o'clock this afternoon, following a four hour talk by District Attorney Thomas Lee Woolwine—one of the most dramatic closing arguments ever made in Los Angeles. Then Judge Reeve began reading his instructions.

He told the ten women and the two men that if they found beyond a reasonable doubt that Burch killed J. Belton Kennedy, the natural presumption was that he intended to kill him, and this presumption must prevail.

He instructed them that murder "by lying in wait" was murder in the first degree.

May Recommend Life Term.

If the jurors find the defendant guilty of murder in the first degree, and they find there are extenuating circumstances, they may recommend life imprisonment.

If, however, they return a verdict of murder in the first degree, and make no recommendations, the judge must sentence him to death.

Burch had quit smiling long before Woolwine finished his arguments. He was white faced when the jurors filed out.

Woolwine talked for hours, breaking all his own previous efforts for length of address. He was excited. His hands trembled continually. His face was pale, save for two carmine spots on his cheek bones that stood out with startling effect. His voice was hoarse at times; sometimes it throbbed and choked and took on a tone of anguish. Sometimes it was loud and angry; sometimes it was but a whisper, a sob, a voice crying softly over a grave.

Women Jurors Weep.

Three women were weeping as he spoke, three of the ten women in the jury box. One of the two men turned away his head and wiped his eyes furiously.

"This poor murdered boy," Woolwine said over and over again, and his voice was that of a father who had lost a son. "I'm not going to let you forget that poor boy if I have to show you his picture twenty times."

"And I'm not going to let you forget that sneaking little coward, waiting in the pitch dark, in the briar bushes, waiting for Belton Kennedy to come bounding up the stairs of his own house, and then to strike him down with a single blow."

Woolwine's voice was hoarse, but he went on, and on, and on, until the jurors were all weeping.

Little birthday cottage in Beverly Glen, so that he could spill his blood.

"Don't you see the picture as I see it? Of course you do!"

"Trusted Siren to Lure Him."

"Kennedy comes. O, Burch knew he would come! He trusted this O'Brien woman for that. He knew she would lure him there," Kennedy comes, and Burch fires, and misses. I don't wonder that he missed!

"But don't you think there would come into the ordinary heart at this time some feeling of compassion? Don't you think some merciful inner voice would say to him: 'Don't fire again, he's still living, still filled with the love of life. You've missed him. You're not a murderer. Don't shoot him in the back. Don't do it!'"

"But that thought didn't enter the heart of this man here feigning insanity; this man making the last ditch defense of the assassin, trying to get out the back door. No, he fired again, and he did not miss."

Knocking His Proper Attitude.

"They made quite a point of our theory that he was on his knees. I don't know whether he was kneeling on his left knee or his right when he fired. Maybe he was on both knees. O, he should have been down on his knees, asking God to put some mercy in his heart."

"They made a lot of that then. They told you a cock and bull story to the effect that Dr. Finley had some one go out in the woods and get a thorn and put it in Burch's knee and then take it out. What an insult to the intelligence!"

"How could Finley know that Burch would have a thorn in his knee, and that Burch would come to him for medical aid? Yet he would have to know that. He would have to have a confederate to go out into the woods, to the identical bush where these thorns grow, and he would have to do a bit of legwork with his thorn, so little you can hardly hold it, to agree with their story."

Why People Loathe Lawyers.

"No wonder the people are becoming disgusted with lawyers. No wonder the world is losing confidence in them."

"Why didn't Burch do the killing in a straightforward, manly way if it had to be done? But this sneaky, low-down way! Is there anything so evil as to lie in wait, with time to think it over, lie in wait and deliberately shoot a man in the back?"

"Why didn't he go back up the canyon? These fellows always go back to the scene of the crime. Maybe it was that. Maybe he wanted to see what had become of his woman accomplice. I could forgive him for that, if I thought it true. But he sneaked away from Los Angeles on the first train, leaving her in peril, and he sent her $55."

Cowardly Descent Charged.

"O, ladies and gentlemen of the jury, if he were not a coward don't you think he would have gone to her rescue? Don't you think he would have said: 'I'm responsible for this, not she; I did it, not she!'"

"Where was Burch on this fatal night? He has not said. He has never told any one he was innocent. He tries to make us believe he's crazy."

"There are no extenuating circumstances here. He showed no mercy and he deserves none. Steel your hearts to do your duty, ladies and gentlemen. The eyes of the state, nay, of the country, are focused on you. If you find him not guilty, you might as well burn down your temples and put armed guards in your houses."

"It is so pitifully easy to convict a poor, weak, submerged citizen, my fellow man, and it is becoming increasingly difficult to convict a man with influence and money. No wonder people are learning to have no faith in our courts of justice."

11 JURORS STILL SITTING TIGHT IN ARBUCKLE CASE

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 13.—Today's session of court in the second trial of Roscoe Arbuckle, on a manslaughter charge in connection with death of Virginia Rappe, a movie actress, apparently advanced the case only in the resumption of preemptory challenges allowed opposing counsel. The jury box tonight had eleven jurors in it, passed temporarily, which was the situation last night. It is not considered likely the jury will be obtained before next Monday.

Howard Spreebles, son of Rudolph Spreebles, and nephew of John D. Spreebles, one of the state's leading capitalists, was one of the jurors accepted temporarily today and still was in the jury box tonight.

TRAIL OF KENOSHA SOCIAL WORKER FOUND, THEN LOST

Kenosha, Wis., Jan. 13.—[Special.]—The search for Mrs. Marie A. Matey, social worker of Kenosha, who disappeared last Tuesday, led to the lake front today and then back to the streets of Kenosha, to be lost again in as much mystery as before.

Albert Niederprim, well acquainted with Mrs. Matey, reported that he passed her Tuesday morning when, although he spoke to her, she walked by without recognizing him.

Henry Waskow declares Mrs. Matey passed along the lake shore Tuesday just before noon and then disappeared behind the old orphan's home building. Later in the day she was said to have been seen walking in the street near the heart of the residence district of Kenosha.

Her husband still clings to the hope she may have been afflicted with amnesia of some form and is wandering about, unable to reveal her identity.

HARDING FOR A SANE, QUICK WAY TO RAISE BONUS

Ill Advised Legislation Is Worse than None.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—[Special.]—President Harding is keeping an open mind on the question of the most feasible means of financing the soldiers' bonus, legislation providing for which is to be passed at this session of congress.

Whether the funds will be provided by sale of bonds into which the allied debt to the United States will be refunded or by levy of a sales tax, or by some other means, are methods which cannot be settled at this time.

What Mr. Harding emphasized today is that the administration will never adopt any program that fails to keep faith with the ex-service men. The administration, according to the President, is everlastingly hostile to the passage of any bonus legislation that does not provide definitely and adequately for such financing as will produce the necessary funds without any undue delay.

Thinks Men Prefer Cash.

The President believes that while optional benefits will be included in the bonus legislation nearly all the former soldiers will elect to take cash. That will mean a major operation in financing. The estimates of the probable aggregate cash bonus payments range all the way from $1,500,000,000 to $3,500,000,000.

Chairman Fordney of the house ways and means committee says he has the President's sanction of the plan to finance the bonus from the interest on the allied debt, or, if that is insufficient, from the sale of the long term securities into which the debt is to be refunded.

Mr. Harding neither confirmed nor denied this today, but indicated he looks upon the plan as a possibility.

Won't Deceive Veterans.

If the funding were arranged for before bonus legislation is undertaken, it would be proper to consider this means of financing in the opinion of the President. Otherwise, it would be only deceiving the ex-service men and creating hopes that might not be realized.

The funding of the $11,000,000,000 foreign debt is full of uncertainties, the President perceives. No one knows what nations are and which are not prepared to resume payment of interest on the funded loans should they be made the basis of financing the bonus.

Mr. Harding made it clear that he would not be opposed to the levy of a sales tax as a means of producing the revenue for the bonus, but the administration leaders in congress doubt that a sales tax could be passed.

British Bonds First.

The President long has advocated the marketing of the funded long term bonds. Presumably $4,000,000,000 of British bonds would be the first ones available for sale to provide funds for the bonus, if this plan of financing is adopted.

Conferees Wait London and Tokio Replies.

BY GRAFTON WILCOX.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—[Special.]—The Washington conference has reached another waiting period.

Heads of delegations today practically concluded work on the naval limitation treaty, but must wait until next week for replies from Tokio and London to the formula proposed for defining Pacific islands to be included in the status quo fortifications agreement which will be incorporated in that treaty.

With the naval negotiations concluded, the conference will find itself back to the far east on the agenda, but it has been decided not to resume formal negotiations until completion of the nine-power treaty until Japan and China have settled Shantung. It may be stated that all the influence which the American and British delegates can command is now being exerted informally to bring about a complete Shantung agreement.

Today the Japanese and Chinese delegations reached an agreement on opening the port of Tsingtao and the former German territory of Kiaochow to foreign trade, and complete agreement on the Shantung railway dispute and the entire issue of Shantung restoration to China by the latter part of next week was predicted by American and British leaders.

Senator Johnson of California returned to Washington today after six weeks visit in the far west and issued a statement assailing the four power Pacific treaty. He declared that the mass of the people want "to keep out of a little league just as they voted to keep out of the big one."

SPEEJACKS IN SYDNEY; COCOA MILK FOR WATER

BY JACK MYERS.

[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]

(Copyright, 1923, By The Chicago Tribune.)

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 13.—Albert Y. Gowen and wife of Chicago arrived here today on their ninety-eight foot motor yacht, the Spee Jacks, after an adventurous cruise across the Pacific ocean, having sailed from New York on Aug. 21, 1921, via Panama, Papeete, Suva, and Noumea.

Capt. Jack Lewis said the vessel behaved splendidly with the exception of the steering gear, which broke down near Tahiti. Once the water reserves ran so low that coconut milk was substituted for drinking purposes. Mr. Gowen intends to continue the voyage via the Philippines, China, and Japan, and thence to European waters. He will stop in England, and then cross the Atlantic for home.

HAVING TIME TO PLAY SEEMS TO BE PERIL TO GIRLS

Girls twenty-five years ago worked from ten to sixteen hours a day. What recreation they had was in the home. Now they work eight hours and have eight hours for play.

Men back of commercialized amusement, Dr. William Burgess, executive secretary of the Illinois Vigilance association, told parishioners of the Park Manor Congregational church last night, took advantage of this change. The 440 dance halls and 480 movies in Chicago are a result, he said. He urged more amusements in the home for the young.

Dr. Philip Yarrow, who followed, declared that nations' dangers are always accompanied by degraded amusements. America, he declared, is doomed, unless a change takes place in her recreational life. The meeting was the second of a series of 100 to be held by the Vigilance association to awaken the state to the dangers of the present day.

ORDERS START ON SOUTH WATER ST. DOUBLE DECKING

$20,000,000 Project to Get Under Way at Once.

Full speed ahead on the widening and double decking of South Water street at a cost of $20,000,000, a project which it is contended will ultimately mean as much to Chicago as the $18,000,000 boulevard link improvement has meant, was ordered yesterday by the mayor.

The decision not to let high prices of labor and material stand in the way of the big improvement, which has been hanging fire since November, 1917, when it was formally approved by the Chicago plan commission, came after a subcommittee of the executive committee of the commission had called on the mayor and asked him to give the order to go ahead.

Wacker Leads Delegation.

Chairman Charles H. Wacker, D. F. Kelly, general manager of Mandel Bros., J. A. M. Simpson, vice president of Marshall Field & Co.; Frank J. Bennett, former commissioner of public works, and former City Controller Walter Wilson composed the delegation which called on the mayor.

Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements, and builder of the link, declared following the conference that the assessment roll on the improvement will be filed with the County clerk within thirty days.

The improvement means an east and west heavy traffic artery on the north side of the loop connecting Illinois Central freight yards with the west side.

The lower level of the thoroughfare will be 135 feet wide.

110 Feet Boulevard.

It means an east and west boulevard 110 feet wide, connecting Michigan boulevard with Washington boulevard, by way of the river front and a widened Market street.

It means a twenty-five foot roadway along the south side of the river, with a new set of quays accessible to South Water street's lower level.

It means the widening of the old South Water street, lined with wagons and commission houses, the frame of which has reached around the world and the business of which amounts to more than $350,000,000 annually.

Where the necessary widening of all buildings between South Water street and the river, including the $4,000,000 Hibbard, Spencer, Bartlett & Co. structure at State and South Water streets.

$5,000,000 Lost Yearly.

The plan commission estimates that $5,000,000 is lost each year by the present method of operating the produce market on South Water street, in waste of foodstuffs caused by long hauls through the streets, in increased cost of handling and rehandling, and in delays occasioned by the market's vast street traffic.

Where the produce market will go has not been definitely decided. Many of the butter, egg and poultry firms have already moved to the Fulton street market. The firms dealing in fruit and vegetables may go to the Santa Fe terminal district at 23d street and Archer avenue, where railroad facilities are abundant. The Haddock court widening as a repository for the market has been abandoned.

Cells Market a Waste and Menace.

The fight of the commission men to remain adjacent to the loop was condemned by Chairman Wacker, who said:

"South Water street is a burdensome charge on the people of Chicago. It is an economic waste, a drawback to progress, an obstruction to the city's development, insanitary, a cause of congestion, and a constant conflagration danger to the loop."

The improvement originally was estimated to cost about $7,000,000. Mr. Wacker made public the following statement as to the reasons for the increased cost:

"The original estimate did not include the widening between State street and Michigan avenue along South Water and River streets; the construction of the upper level of South Water street between Wabash and Michigan avenues, and the supplemental connection with the lower level emerging in Market street between Lake and Randolph streets, all of which were later included in the improvement and increased its estimated cost to approximately $12,000,000."

New Features Included.

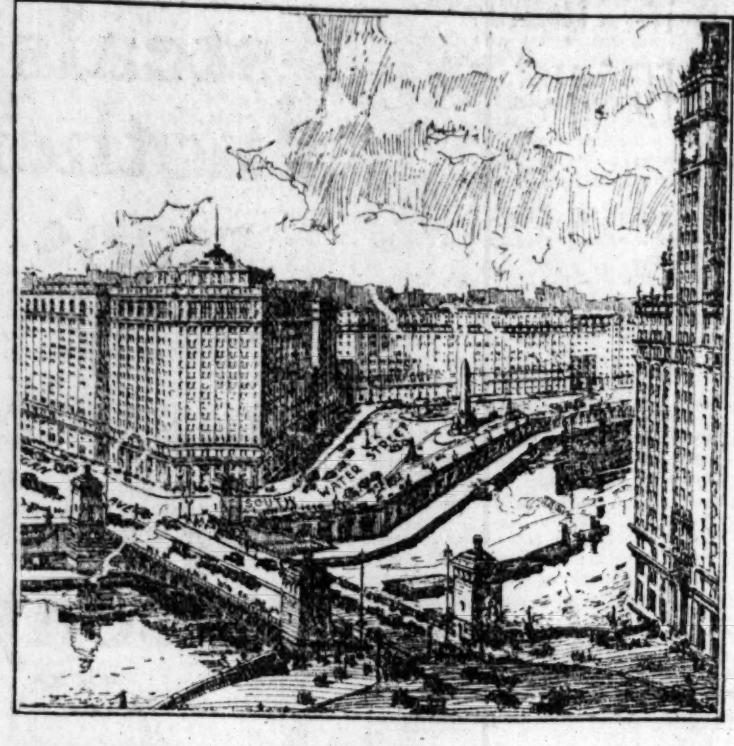

"Not until the Michigan avenue improvement was finished was the necessity sufficiently realized of making the South Water street improvement complete by the inclusion of these new features."

"Since then the increased value of South Water and River street property, due to the Michigan avenue improvement, and the increased cost of labor and materials, due to war conditions, have brought the present estimated cost up to $20,000,000."

A $18,000,000 bond issue for the improvement was voted in November, 1919. That leaves $10,200,000 to be raised. It is expected that a $7,000,000 bond issue will be submitted to the voters some time within the next two years, and that the remainder will be raised by special assessments.

It was the question whether downtown property owners would accept the heavy assessments necessary which has held up action on the improvement for the last few months. It is understood the plan commission's executive committee has been in touch with the owners of much downtown realty and that the property owners are convinced the improvement must come, and that the longer it is delayed the greater will be the cost.

GRANTS DIVORCE TO MRS. LEONARD IN RECORD TIME

Given $15,000 Yearly Alimony.

An order granting Mrs. Florence Grey Leonard, 942 Lake Shore drive, an absolute divorce from her husband, Clifford M. Leonard, president of the Leonard Construction company, was signed yesterday in Superior court by Judge Charles A. McDonald.

The decree was granted Thursday following a short hearing at the noon intermission. Mr. Leonard was not present in court and did not contest the charges of cruelty made by his wife. Servants in the employ of Mrs. Leonard were the witnesses.

To Get $15,000 a Year.

Under the terms of the settlement, Mrs. Leonard will receive $15,000 a year and have the custody of the children half the time. Mr. Leonard will pay all the children's expenses.

Although such an air of mystery surrounded the granting of the decree that news of the decision was not generally known until yesterday, Judge McDonald denied that any attempt at secrecy had been made by him.

The hearing was held in open court," he said. "There were several people in the courtroom and no attempt was made to exclude any one. I heard that some attempt to keep the bill a secret was made, but it was not done in my court."

Of Society's Younger Set.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Leonard are well known in the younger set of society. He is a member of the Onwentsia, Saddle and Cycle, Chicago University, Casino, and other clubs. During the last few months he has been spending most of his time in New York.

Mrs. Leonard, accompanied by her attorney, appeared in court about 12:30 o'clock. Attorney Edwin M. Ashcraft appeared in behalf of Mr. Leonard.

In her bill Mrs. Leonard charged her husband with cruelty, citing two specific acts. The first was on July 15, 1921. On another occasion, she said, he struck her several blows. She also declared that his abusive language and habitual treatment of her made it impossible for them to continue living together.

Denies Abusive Language.

While admitting striking his wife, Mr. Leonard denied having used abusive or contemptuous language in bringing about the quarrel which ended in divorce. He declared that "the relations existing between them had been that of a continual quarrel and disagreement and admits that it is no longer possible for them to live together."

The Leonards were married Dec. 22, 1909. Their children are Fleury, 6 years old; Hope, 4, and Clifford, 2.

Following the granting of the decree, Mr. Leonard announced last night that he would leave immediately for a trip to South America, where he has business interests.

School Board Supplies, Believed Stolen, Found

Valparaiso, Ind., Jan. 13.—[Special.]—Joseph Koperling, an employee of the board of education in Chicago, today obtained a search warrant and accompanied by local police searched a summer cottage on a lake north of here. In the cottage, said to be owned by Harry A. Beals, an engineer in the Holden school in Chicago, two truck loads of school supplies were found. They are believed to have been stolen from the board of education in Chicago.

New York, Jan. 13.—Richard Croker, former Tammany Hall chieftain, is suffering from gallstones, it was stated in a cable message received from his wife today by John M. Riehl, former president of the National Democratic club. His condition was said to be improving. Last December Mr. Croker, who is 80 years old, caught a severe cold, but was understood to be recovering.

Zion City Holds Mass Meeting; Road Plans Up

A mass meeting was held at Zion City last night to discuss the remaining half-mile strip of road running through the business part of the city. Different angles of the proposed concrete road were discussed. It is proposed to build the road seventy-six feet wide for the two center blocks, fifty-two feet for the two north blocks, and thirty feet for the two north blocks.

DR. W. M. BURTON IS GIVEN PERKIN MEDAL FOR HIS INVENTION

According to word which reached here yesterday from New York, Dr. W. M. Burton, president of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, was presented with the Perkin medal in the east by the Society of Chemical Industry.

DR. W. M. BURTON. (Moffett Photo.)

The Perkin medal, said to be the highest honor for a chemist, was given by the Society of Chemical Industry.

There was a serious hitch this afternoon when the men were paid, each receiving a month's pay previous to demobilization. They were paid at the rate of $16 (roughly $25 weekly), instead of $18 (about $35 weekly) which they had signed up for, and the men at first refused to embark. Finally they had a conference with Gen. Wood and agreed to sail, leaving two delegates behind to prosecute their interests. If the matter is not settled, later companies may refuse to embark. The men will go right through to London tonight, where they will turn in their rifles and equipment and, as one said to me, join the unemployed.

3 Months for Evacuation.

As soon as the treaty is formally ratified, which will be tomorrow morning, the machinery of evacuating the troops will be set in motion. It will take three months for complete evacuation. It was noticeable tonight that most of the men carried little flags in the ends of their rifles. The majority were British, but I saw some Stars and Stripes and a few Sinn Fein flags.

When the members of the southern parliament meet tomorrow at the Mansion house to ratify the treaty, the meeting will be called to order by Arthur Griffith. It is not expected that the proceedings will last long. The De Valeraites having announced their intention to stay away. It is impossible to say that they will not change their minds.

As soon as the ratification arrangements have been made, there will be a formal taking over of the civilian administration and the police by the provisional government, which probably will be much the same as the Dull cabinet just appointed by Mr. Griffith. Excluding the police, postoffice, and schools, there are about 3,000 civil servants in Ireland, most of whom, it is expected, will be continued in office. The police probably will soon be disbanded, while the schools and post-office service will be continued.

Big Strike Peril.

The free state is starting with a serious labor situation. A national railway strike is threatened for tomorrow night because of the change from war to peace time wages and conditions. The strike has been postponed twice, and now the men are threatening to quit immediately. Joseph McGrath, the new Dail minister of labor, is hard at work trying to secure a compromise or at least a postponement to give the free state a fair start. A rail strike would make it impossible for a speedy British evacuation.

FINED FOR DISTURBANCE.

Richard McConnell and a woman who did not appear in the Egan court with him yesterday were each fined $10 and costs for creating a disturbance in the Edgewater Beach hotel New Year's eve.

IRISH PROTECT BRITISH TROOPS IN EVACUATION

300 Black and Tans Quit Dublin for London.

BY JOHN STEELE.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.) (Copyright, 1922, by The Chicago Tribune.) DUBLIN, Jan. 13.—The first British forces have left Ireland, and it is estimated that in three months there will not be a British soldier in the whole free state, except the care and maintenance parties provided for by the treaty at four ports. The men who went today were two companies of Black and Tans, a body formed for the most part of former officers in the British army and the most hated troops sent to Ireland during the war.

Tonight the Black and Tans marched from their headquarters at Beggars Bush barracks with their rifles over their shoulders and carrying their side arms and other equipment, singing lustily and exchanging chaff with the crowd. It was a silent crowd on the whole as the first 300 men marched through a mile of Dublin streets. The route was lined with husky young men in slouch hats and trench overcoats with pockets bulging. These were members of the Irish republican army, who a few months ago would have been seeking an opportunity to use guns and bombs on such a procession.

Stifle All Insults.

Tonight they formed a guard to see that no enthusiast overstepped the mark of either safety or courtesy. I saw one man who tried to start a hissed and hustled off of sight in a manner worthy of the best trained police. At the last moment the authorities decided not to send a band which had been provided for the reason that the night was dark and rainy. If the weather is good the other companies will be played to the train.

There was a serious hitch this afternoon when the men were paid, each receiving a month's pay previous to demobilization. They were paid at the rate of $16 (roughly $25 weekly), instead of $18 (about $35 weekly) which they had signed up for, and the men at first refused to embark. # BUILDING UNIONS TO ASK LANDIS TO ARBITRATE AGAIN

Decision Is Made by Trades Council.

Judge Landis will be appealed to again to endeavor to adjust the difficulties between the employing contractors of the city and the building trades unions. This was announced last night after a meeting of the Building Trades council, at which the building situation was discussed. Thomas S. Kearney, president of the council, said a committee representing the unions had been appointed. This committee will wait upon Judge Landis either today or early next week.

The exact nature of the proposition which will be put up to Judge Landis was not announced. The meeting of the Building Trades council was marked by unusual efforts to preserve secrecy as to the proceedings. It is understood these precautions were taken at the demand of the unions which have been "outlawed" by the contractors and the citizens' committee because of their refusal to abide by the original Landis award.

Protest at Publicity.

Shortly after the meeting opened the representatives of these unions are said to have protested against the publicity which has been given to the fact that several of the more important building trades unions—notably the bricklayers, ironworkers, and electricians—had during the week reiterated their determination to abide by the Landis award. They said the announcement that these unions refused to be bound by the resolution offering aid to the carpenters and other unions which had refused to accept the Landis award had weakened the position of the building trades in dealing with the contractors.

They insisted that all further negotiations should be conducted in secrecy. The council consented to this and it was voted to give out no further information.

Fight to Oust Kearney.

Reports had been circulated previous to the meeting of the council that Thomas S. Kearney, its president, intended to resign. These reports were vigorously denied by Kearney, who said he intended to stick to his post, to which he was elected after the retirement of Simon O'Donnell.

It was declared, however, that a movement to oust Kearney as president of the council is well under way. This movement, it was said, was supported by several of the unions which have refused to accept the Landis award.

A faction of Kearney's own union, the plumbers, is interested in the effort to get a new president of the council. The antagonists of Kearney are assembling in the ground that he is too conservative and that the building trades need a leader who will make a real fight against the contractors.

IT TAKES THREE COURTS TO TRY UNION CASES

In three different criminal courts, cases against union officials were called yesterday. In Judge John A. Swanson's court William Quessie, president of the Chicago Flat Janitors' union, and nine other officials of the organization are on trial for conspiracy. Work of selecting a jury is on.

In Judge John R. Caverly's court arguments to quash the indictments against Simon O'Donnell, former president of the Chicago Building Trades council, and four other union officials consumed the entire day and will be continued Monday. Thomas Kearney, president of the Building Trades council, Michael Boyle of the electricians' union, and a half a dozen others came up for trial before Judge Joseph H. Pritch. The cases were continued.

Postoffice Appropriation Bill Is Sent to Senate

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—The annual postoffice appropriation bill, carrying approximately $54,000,000, was passed today by the house and sent to the senate. No attempt was made to reinsert in the measure a section providing $1,925,000 for air mail service, which had been eliminated by the appropriations committee.

BREWERY HEADS, WORKERS NAMED IN DRY WARRANTS

Warrants for the arrest of two officials and three employees of the Keeley Brewing company, 516 East 28th street, charging violation of the prohibition law, were issued yesterday by Commissioner James R. Glass at the request of Assistant United States District Attorney Andrews.

The men named are Thomas F. Keeley, 1201 Madison park, president; Lawrence Henely, 6704 S. Union avenue, secretary and treasurer; Andrew Brackett, 1109 Vernon avenue, clerk; Thomas McNally, 6332 Ellis avenue, wagon boss; and Lawrence Maisie, 6701 Lafayette avenue, chauffeur.

According to Mr. Andrews, government agents seized a truck loaded with twenty barrels of beer at Madison and Leavitt streets on Dec. 20. Maisie and McNally, who were on the truck, admitted they were selling the beer to saloons on the west side and that it had been made in the Keeley brewery.

The First Bros. Brewing company, 1226 Webster avenue, was seized yesterday on an order issued by Federal Judge George A. Carpenter. A deputy United States marshal was placed in charge of the plant, which was forced to suspend operation.

Prohibition agents led by Guy W. Ginders, chief field agent, invaded Melrose Park yesterday and raided more than a dozen saloons and soft drink parlors. A large quantity of "moonshine" liquor and wine was seized and ten owners of places were arrested and brought to Chicago and arraigned before a United States commissioner.

Settlement of the photo-engravers' strike virtually was reached last night at a conference between officials of the Photo Engravers' union and representatives of the Chicago Photo Engravers' association. The agreement is subject to ratification of the membership of the union. Under the proposed agreement there will be no changes in either the hours or wages, union officials said. The settlement was made on a forty-four hour week and a $44 a week wage agreement. The photo-engravers went on strike in commercial plants Jan. 3.

BOOZE RUNNING "SUB" CHASER VANISHES AT SEA

JAPAN DIVERTS NAVY SAVINGS TO HELP OF IDLE

Industry Meets Wash-ton Limit Action.

BULLETIN.
TOKIO, Jan. 13.—(United Press.)—Japan has not yielded in any way nor has it made any concessions on the Shantung negotiations, according to an official statement issued today by the foreign office. The statement declared that Japan's previous position remains unchanged.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
TOKIO, Jan. 13.—The diet is debating the adjustment of labor conditions under the Washington naval limitation plan. The labor unions demand a two year retirement bonus for those thrown out of employment, but they are doomed to disappointment. There probably will be, however, some form of unemployment allowance until the labor can be absorbed in other channels, to be paid for out of the savings to be made through reduction of the naval building account.

The blow to the shipbuilding industry will not be so great as was at first feared. Many great concerns, like Mitsubishi, will turn their plants to other uses, at the same time keeping their experts together for naval repair work and for commercial shipbuilding.

The employees of the naval arsenal and the naval dockyards are most concerned about a retirement bonus. The navy is considering whether the old or the younger workers shall be dismissed. Official action awaits the return from Washington of Admiral Baron Kato, minister of marine, and his experts.

Want Larger Subsidies.
Shipbuilders' proposals for government action include an increase in subsidies, limitation of age of merchant ships and higher duties on merchant ships imported in foreign vessels. However, it is by no means certain that the shipbuilding industry will suffer any serious loss. Although orders from private shipping concerns for large ships have been suspended entirely, small ships are being ordered in fairly large numbers in connection with the revival in adjacent sea service.

The navy is ordering construction of small towing boats and also transport ships. Thirteen such work at five plants; were signed in December. Shipowners usually transfer to the government the cost of the ships. The Japanese ships aggregating 3,900,000 tons, 250 with a tonnage of 600,000 are more than twenty-five years old. It is calculated that 10 per cent of the total ships, or 390,000 tons, must be replaced annually.

Tokio for Ship Federation.
The ministry of communications has suggested a federation of all private shipping companies in Japan like that of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha and the Pacific Mail Steamship company to reduce competition and minimize the effects on world shipbuilding by the naval limitation. In the ten months of 1921 for which statistics are available there were thirty-eight ships of a total tonnage of 195,815 constructed in Japan. This is a decrease in number of forty-six and in tonnage of 177,645 over the same period of 1920.

There will be no wholesale dismissal of naval officers. Most will be absorbed by the larger ships of the modified Japanese navy, while the auxiliary craft will have a larger number of officers than heretofore.

SYNDICATE THAT BOUGHT N. Y. POST HAS 34 MEMBERS

New York, Jan. 13.—(Special.)—Persons of prominence in many walks of life are among the thirty-four individuals constituting the syndicate which has bought the New York Evening Post from Thomas W. Lamont of J. P. Morgan & Co. Formal announcement of the change of ownership was made today in the editorial columns of that newspaper. Those in the purchasing group were announced as follows:

Charles C. Burlingham, James Byrner, Norman H. Davis, Frank L. Polk, Harold I. Pratt, John T. Pratt, Henry S. Dennison, Roland T. Redmond, Cleveland H. Dodge, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Marshall Field, Joseph H. Schaffner, Edwin F. Gay, Donald Scott, Maitland F. Griggs, Finley J. Shepard, August Hecksher, Joseph E. Stewart, George H. Howard, Harold Phelps Stokes, Henry James, Mrs. Willard Straight, Sam A. Lewisohn, Samuel Thorne Jr., George O. May, Martin Vogel, Van S. Merle-Smith, Paul M. Warburg, Gerrish H. Milliken, George W. Wickersham, William C. Osborn, Clarence M. Woolley, Robert P. Perkins, and Owen D. Young.

The announcement stated that the present management, under Edwin F. Gay, will continue.

EVENTS IN CENTRAL AMERICA

SAN SALVADOR, Republic of Salvador, Jan. 13.—(United Press.)—The Nicaraguan government had negotiated a twenty-five year loan of $3,000,000 in the United States, to bear interest at 7 per cent.

The federal council of the Federation of Central American republics has declined to recognize the Guatemalan delegate to the council chosen by the recently formed Guatemalan government (1), it was reported here today. It was also reported that the council has refused to recognize the legality of the elections of Guatemala's new senators and deputies.

Government officials expressed belief that the life of the infant federation of central American republics was in danger.

LIANG CABINET GETS MONEY TO REDEEM CHINA

BY DON PATTERSON.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
PEKING, Jan. 13.—Governmental China is suffering mixed emotions since the establishment of the Liang Shih-yi cabinet. Liang himself is trying to rehabilitate China's finances and he has concluded an immediate loan of 7,500,000 Mexican dollars ($2,750,000) through the sale of rights to the salt tax to banks. He is also making preparations for a loan of 90,000,000 Mexican dollars ($45,000,000) from a consortium.

Liang's plans call for assistance to Chinese banks and look forward to the borrowing of further amounts to a total of 300,000,000 Mexican dollars ($150,000,000) on a basis of customs and revenues.

Get Jap Consent?
Japanese consent is believed to have been obtained by the promise to pay back the 150,000,000 Mexican dollar loan secured by the Anfu clique. It is expected that the customs tariff will be made effective at 5 per cent soon. While the northern provinces have given assurances of their cooperation on this proposal, nothing is known with regard to the southern provinces of Kwangtung, Yunnan, Kweichow, Szechuan, Kiangsi, and Kwangsi.

Although the Liang cabinet has denied all rumors of direct negotiations with Japan over Shantung, the people of central China are suspicious, and organized opposition is forming to the new administration group. Today China is divided into three camps: The Canton group, under Dr. Sun Yat Sen, which includes the provinces named above, and which, reports indicate, is holding military councils with regard to opening an offensive against the north. Another group is headed by Gen. Wu Pei Fu, a liberal Chinese nationalist, who has not recognized the Liang régime and is taking advantage of the Yangtze valley opposition to organize a strong movement against the Peking administration.

Warships Collect Pay.
SHANGHAI, Jan. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—Seven warships of the Peking government's navy have left here for Shidherhwei, near Yangchow, in the province of Kiangsu, the commanders announcing their intention of collecting the salt duties there to obtain money with which to buy food for their sailors. The crews have not received wages for six months, and their officers said before sailing that their action was necessary to prevent starvation of their men.

RAIL UNIONS DO NOT PLAN STRIKE OVER NEW RULES

Railroad shop union officials declared last night that no strike vote would be taken at present over working rules recently promulgated by the United States railroad labor board.

The new rules, which replace the national agreement made under federal control, will not be accepted in toto by the six shop crafts, but instead of taking a strike vote an attempt will be made to obtain a rehearing before the board on certain rules which have met with the most objection.

SOVIET CREDITS SENT FOR WHEAT; BUSINESS OPENS

Asbestos Firm Opens First
Moscow Offices.

BY DONALD DAY.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
RIGA, Jan. 13.—The Allied Drug and Chemical Corporation of New York will be the first private foreign concern to open an office in Moscow since the revolution, according to Boris Mischell, the company's foreign manager, who arrived at Riga today en route to Berlin to confer with his associates regarding the purchase of machinery and materials to exploit an asbestos concession in the Abovskiy district of the Ural mountains.

Mr. Mischell displayed two soviet letters of credit addressed to the soviet trade delegation at Berlin. The first was for $105,000 for 100,000 bushels of wheat, the first delivery on a contract calling for 500,000 bushels. The second was for $52,000 for transportation charges. Mr. Mischell says he saw the wheat loaded on soviet cars at Riga before returning to Moscow for payment.

The New York company's operations will begin in May, and 3,000 workers will be employed, Mr. Mischell says. A short railway connecting the mine with a refinery will be built. The company will open a store selling salt, sugar, flour, rice, fats, shoes, and clothing, upon which the soviet will waive import duties. The workers will receive their pay in soviet rubles, being permitted to spend three-quarters of their wages at this store.

Differences with workmen will be referred to a committee of three, and deadlocks will be decided by soviet courts.

"Americans have more liberties in Russia than any other foreigners," Mr. Mischell said. "Now is the time to abandon a watchful waiting policy and get business before the Germans and English get it."

RAID RESTAURANT FOR GAMBLERS.
In a raid on a restaurant at 727 South Halsted street by detectives of the Des Plaines street station yesterday, ten alleged gamblers were arrested.

Three New Chiefs in Russian Cabinet

RIGA, Latvia, Jan. 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—Premier Lenin has virtually completed the formation of his new soviet cabinet, according to advices received here today from Moscow by the official bolshevik Rosta News agency. It contains the same personnel as did Russia's 1921 directing body, with the exception of three new cabinet members added to the list. Some of the portfolios, however, have been shifted.

According to Latvian and other officials at Riga the new council of commissars of seventeen members is composed mostly of persons of Russian nationality. Minister of War Trotsky and Minister of Labor Schmidt are of Jewish parentage, Minister of the Interior Dzerzhinsky is of Polish nationality, and M. Stalin, minister of national minorities and labor and peasant inspection, is a Georgian.

The following is the revised list of the cabinet, as taken from the official newspaper Pravda and the Rosta agency:

President of the council of commissars—Nikolai Lenin.

First vice president—M. Rykov.

Second vice president—M. Tsurupoff.

(The vice presidents are newly created positions.)

Commissar for education—M. Lunacharsky.

Foreign trade—Leonid Krassin.

Finance—M. Kareshtinsky.

National minorities and labor and peasant inspection—M. Stalin.

Labor—M. Schmidt.

Food—M. Brukhanoff.

War and navy—Leon Trotsky.

Communication and interior—M. Dzerzhinsky.

Posts and telegraphs—M. Dvornikov.

Health—Dr. Semashko.

Foreign affairs—George Chicherin.

Justice—M. Karsky.

Agriculture—M. Yakovenko.

President of the supreme economic council—M. Bogdanoff.

All of the members of the cabinet, according to local soviet sources, are of the so called right wing communists, following Premier Lenin's lead.

M. Kalenin, president of the All-Russian executive committee, and M. Krylenko, head of the court system, who, with the cabinet, composed most of the important officials of Russia, are native Russians.

An inspection of the list of committees of the third international shows that a majority of the new cabinet also are members of that organization. Soviet sources in Riga declare, however, that the revolutionary propaganda efforts of the international now are virtually at a standstill.

The story of what happened after he thrust her out of his life makes one of the great dramatic situations of the screen.

You will be moved to pity for the wife, played by the lovely Claire Windsor. And your heart will go out to the husband, who is made extraordinarily real and vivid by Elliott Dexter. Lowell Sherman plays the "other man."

Claire Windsor has been called one of the screen's beautiful women. In the course of the action she wears several gowns which will bring gasps of admiration from the audience.

BLAIR WILL TELL HOW TO IMPROVE TRANSIT SYSTEM

Aldermen Find Mayor's Plan Minus 5 Cent Fare.

BY OSCAR HEWITT.

It is the turn of Henry A. Blair today to tell what he thinks should be done to improve local transportation in Chicago. He is the head of the surface lines and will appear before the council committee this morning. When he was before the committee last he urged a consolidation of the surface lines and the construction of subways.

When Samuel Insull, representing the elevated properties, was before the committee a few days ago he said: "There is no question whatever that the very best thing that could be done would be to have the facilities of surface and elevated pooled in one pot." He also asserted that "rapid transit requires immediate attention," and that to get it subway construction is necessary. He added he favored subways built by the community.

A majority of the local transportation committee has expressed itself in favor of rapid transit at once.

City Administration Obstacle. But progress may be made hard by the attitude of the city administration. The mayor in interviews has indicated he favors subways, but in connection with his transportation plan, which he admits requires additional legislative authorization. That means delay. No action now.

A more definite expression on subways came from Assistant Corporation Counsel Dahlberg, who also is speaker of the house of representatives. He said to the local transportation committee: "You cannot build any subways without additional legislation." Questioned further, he added: "Every one is agreed you need legislation." The committee probably will ask the corporation counsel to specify in detail what additional legislation in his opinion is necessary.

There has been so much propaganda for the mayor's plan that many people believe it provides for a 5 cent fare. Even some newspapers have represented it provides for a 5 cent fare, the deficit, if any, in operation to be made up by taxation. But the final bill which Gov. Small and Mayor Thompson criticized the legislature for adopting—which therefore presumably was satisfactory to each—didn't provide for a 5 cent fare.

No 5 Cent Fare Provision. Here is the latest statement on the subject from the official records of the local transportation committee: ALL SCHWARTZ—Didn't the amended bill provide for a 5 cent fare? DAHLBERG—No.

INSULL—It did not. DAHLBERG—No. SCHWARTZ—No? DAHLBERG—No. SCHWARTZ—Was there anything about a 5 cent fare in the bill? DAHLBERG—No. SCHWARTZ—As it was finally voted upon by the senate? DAHLBERG—No. SCHWARTZ—In the mayor's bill? DAHLBERG—No. INSULL—No? SCHWARTZ—Did the mayor abandon his 5 cent . . . ? DAHLBERG—No. SCHWARTZ—Fare plan entirely? DAHLBERG—No, he didn't abandon it. The senate took the position that the rate of fare was not a matter of legislative enactment.

Stricken Out in Senate. TOMAN—That is true. I was down here. The 5 cent fare provision was stricken out after it reached the senate. I was left discretionary with the trustee, to be elected, to charge a dollar if they saw fit. Isn't that right, Mr. Dahlberg? DAHLBERG—It was up to the trustee to fix the fare.

TOMAN—But didn't it give the trustee the power to charge a dollar if they saw fit? DAHLBERG—O, no, I couldn't say that. SCHWARTZ—Well, they could charge a reasonable fare? DAHLBERG—Yes. Probably the committee will again

ASKS DECREE

MRS. MITZI MELKE.

MRS. MITZI MELKE is asking a divorce from James Melke before Judge Hugo Friend on the ground that he has been convicted of a felony. Counsel for the husband contends the alleged felony took place in New York and therefore cannot be submitted as evidence in the courts of this state. Mrs. Melke and her son, James Melke Jr., both testified yesterday as to acts of cruelty on the part of the husband and father.

ask Mayor Thompson to appear before it and express his views. To the last invitation, Mayor Thompson in his reply of Dec. 27 referred to the "Thompson plan for people's ownership and operation of street cars at a 5 cent fare." The aldermen desire a definite expression of the mayor's position.

Mr. Insull told the committee he "had never read of any 5 cent fare plan of the mayor's with relation to the elevated roads."

"You mean that the 5 cent fare plan does not relate to the elevated roads, is that it?" asked Schwartz. "It never occurred to me that it did," replied Mr. Insull.

ISADORE LEVIN IS INDICTED BY U. S. Springfield, Ill., Jan. 13.—Isadore Levin, former secretary of the Illinois civil service commission, who was ousted last summer, was indicted by a federal grand jury tonight on charges of violating the postal laws.

On the outside of an envelope which he sent through the mails following his break with Gov. Small and the state administration Levin is said to have written, "Law breaking is Small's pastime." Levin was dismissed from state service after the commission charged him with devoting too much of his time to private interests and with cruelty to his child. He then began an alleged exposé of the Small administration, which he accused of flagrant and wholesale violations of the civil service laws.

LEVIN—It did not. DAHLBERG—No. SCHWARTZ—No? DAHLBERG—No. SCHWARTZ—Was there anything about a 5 cent fare in the bill? DAHLBERG—No. SCHWARTZ—As it was finally voted upon by the senate? ## MUST CUT WAGES TO EARN 6 PER CT., RAILROADS AVER

Byram Tells I. C. C. of Troubles.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—Economies of railroad management and increasing efficiency of railroad labor have failed to hold railroad earnings above their danger mark, according to railroad presidents testifying today at the interstate commerce commission's investigation into transportation rate levels.

H. E. Byram, president of the Chicago, Milwaukee, and St. Paul, appearing for western carriers, and W. L. Mapother, president of the Louisville and Nashville for the southern district, joined in declaring that the existence of present rate levels and maintenance of the principle that carriers were entitled to a 6 per cent return on the value of their property were absolutely necessary to the existence of a satisfactory transportation system.

Want Wages Cut Again. Both also advanced the need of further wage reductions as the only possible source of additional earnings necessary to meet fixed charges, and held up federal control of wages and working conditions, now in effect through the railroad labor board, as responsible for unnecessary and unjustifiable expenditures at the present time. The board, "by inflexible rules made it impossible to adjust wage scales to meet changed economic conditions," Byram said.

Managerial skill is stifled or impaired by the away of government agencies, both in the regulation of wages and regulation of operations," Mr. Mapother said. "It is relegated almost to impotence and only left free to face the task of providing funds to meet deficits."

Economies Still Insufficient. Mr. Byram cited the series of economies to which he said his road had resorted and for which he claimed savings in the aggregate amounting to millions, although, in the face of falling traffic, he asserted, they had been insufficient to allow the earning of fixed charges by his road during several months.

This was a typical condition in the west, he asserted, while Mr. Mapother fixed the earning of southern roads at the rate of 2.2 per cent on invested capital during the ten months last tabulated.

EUROPE'S FATE HINGES ON TALK IN PARIS TODAY

Lloyd George to Ask Poincare for His Plans.

many. He is ready to demand that Germany keep the London schedule of payments and that the Rathenau-Loucheur agreement be discarded. The question of submarines and the British alliance will be subordinated to this aim. That is the gist of the information and opinion which is emerging from the clouded political situation in Paris tonight.

M. Poincare will meet Prime Minister Lloyd George at the British embassy tomorrow afternoon shortly after Mr. Lloyd George's arrival from Cannes. It is understood that Mr. Lloyd George will point out to the premier that arrangements were completed for the Geneva conference by M. Briand and that that subject is no longer open for discussion. He will tell M. Poincare that only an endorsement of the Anglo-French alliance and the matter of a temporary settlement of the reparations remains open.

Radicals Stay Away.

M. Poincare had hoped to get members of the radical parties into his cabinet, but after a meeting this morning the leaders of these elements decided not to take part in the ministry. The followers of Clemenceau also refused. Thus M. Poincare's ministry will be entirely conservative and will have the support of the right and a part of the center. It is expected that his majority will be liberal. Of 600 votes he will probably control 350.

Up to a late hour last night M. Poincare had not announced his cabinet, and it was said that he had not completed it.

It is stated here that it is practically certain that Count de Lasteyrie will be finance minister; M. Landry, minister of marine; M. Berard, minister of education; M. Durand, minister of agriculture; M. Sarraut, minister of the colonies; and M. Letourneur, minister of public works. The other members are still uncertain.

It is not thought that the Poincare ministry will last long. The new premier's majority is too small to assure continued support.

The formation of the Poincare cabinet will probably entail the following results:

1. A severe attitude toward Germany.
2. A delay in recognition of Russia by France.
3. A probable disavowal of the acceptance made at Cannes for the Geneva conference.
4. A demand will be made for France to act alone on reparations and for it to go to any extent to get full reparations.

SHOCK TO GERMANY

BY GEORGE SELDES.
(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
Copyright, 1922, by The Chicago Tribune.

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—Just when the German politicians felt that their house, for the first time since the war, was being put in order, and when all Germans took their first deep breath and hoped for some relief from the entente's interpretation of the Versailles treaty, M. Briand's fall came, and the German leaders feel that their house has again fallen about their ears. Politically, Germany is up in the air with the 500,000,000 gold marks ($25,000,000) reparations payment revived.

Suddenly Germany also realized that M. Briand was not such a hard master at all. M. Poincare is actually a bogeyman for the nation, which again is fearing the occupation of the Ruhr and other sanctions for not making good on Sunday's installment. From a leading banker I learn that the reichsbank has made almost no effort during the last three weeks to purchase dollars or pounds for the payment, and it has about 200,000,000 gold marks ($40,000,000), not all which is in ready cash.

"We asked for a moratorium and an investigation of our inability to pay," said the banker. "The reparations commission never replied negatively. Until the commission makes a decision it cannot be said that Germany has defaulted. Germany has not bought additional foreign money, because it could not. The issuing of new paper bills would only lessen the rate of exchange."

Judge Hugo Pann will have charge of the debate.

SENATOR WANTS INFORMATION ON FOREIGN STATES

Seeks the Causes of Chronic Deficits.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.
Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—(Special.)—Senator McCormick of Illinois made public today a resolution which he will introduce in the senate, Monday seeking to obtain from the state department data which may point the way to the formation of a definite policy to guide the United States in case it decides to participate in the forthcoming economic conference of the powers at Geneva.

President Harding let it be known today that no decision has been reached concerning the invitation to the United States to take part in the Geneva conference, notwithstanding former Premier Briand's statement yesterday that the United States had consented to take part.

Asks About Europe's Finances.

Senator McCormick's resolution asks the secretary of state, "if not incompatible with the public interest, to lay before the senate such information regarding the revenues, expenditures and deficits of the European states, as may be available to the department of state, showing for the last and current fiscal years, especially the annual cost of armaments in the several states, as compared with the annual deficits of the several states, and the expenditures and the sum of the interest annually due from the several states on account of the loans made to them by the United States."

Reason for Resolution.

Senator McCormick, explaining the purpose of the resolution, said: "I believe that the American people ought to be informed authoritatively regarding the exact causes of the chronic deficits of the European governments, in order that they may form just conclusions as to the remedies therefor. According to the authoritative figures which I have before me, France, with 40,000,000 population, has over 800,000 men under arms. The following table shows a total of over 2,000,000 armed men for a population in the aggregate slightly larger than that of the United States."

Country.	Population.	Men with colors.
Italy	40,000,000	450,000
Poland	29,400,000	400,000
Rumania	17,500,000	190,000
Czechoslovakia	14,000,000	100,000

"These figures are by no means all-inclusive, but they show a total of over 2,000,000 armed men for a population in the aggregate slightly larger than that of the United States."

THE CHILDREN AND GEORGE WASHINGTON

More Entries in the Race for $11,650 in The Tribune's Prizes for School Children and Teachers.

Here are more of the essays by boys and girls entered in the George Washington prize contest being conducted by The Tribune. The contest closes on Washington's birthday, Feb. 22.

Few His Equals.

Of Napoleon it is written, "He was as great as a man can be without virtue." America, referring to Washington, the glorification of her past, can proudly change the expression thus: "He was as great as a virtuous man can be."

To sketch the life of Washington is to outline the history of the revolution and the birth of the nation. Thus he is blended one of the world's greatest characters and one of the most momentous struggles in history.

Washington early realized that America must be free. He never lost sight of that purpose as commander in chief. He neither dreamed nor strayed; he stuck with invincible steadfastness and indomitable will. His conception of duty was unwavering loyalty to America. At Valley Forge or crossing the Delaware, he was the same Washington, spirit incarnate of the revolution.

He was a stubborn and often reckless fighter, yet patient under defeat, capable of cooperation, winner in the long series of varying battles, and what is exceptional among renowned soldiers, a great statesman as well.

Washington, but for perfect honesty, might have acted as a despot. Quite the contrary, it was under his guidance that America, young, virile, and prophetic of a great free state, was born.

Judged by his work or the effect of his work on history, he stands among the greatest of the world. Few have equaled his achievements; none have exceeded him in beauty, purity, and strength of character.

UNKNOWN ASSAILANT ASSAULTS FINLEY BELL NEAR HOME

Finley Bell, former manager of the Grand Boulevard Property Owners' association, was attacked by a mysterious assailant who struck him with a club and his fists as Mr. Bell was ascending the steps of his home at 463 Oakwood boulevard yesterday.

Mr. Bell fought off his assailant, who fled to a waiting automobile and escaped. Mr. Bell told the police he believed the assailant was the same man who had been involved in a suit of recent litigation in which he has been involved. During his tenure of office with the property association, Mr. Bell adjusted many disputes between white and colored property owners.

GLOVE WORKERS' CO-OP FACTORY PAYS DIVIDEND

A 6 per cent dividend was announced last night by the "co-op" glove factory which was opened by the Glove Workers' union some fourteen months ago. The venture was started on a small scale, with a dozen or so workers, largely as an experiment, and despite the business slump it has kept operating steadily without shutting down a day. At the directors' meeting last night the first annual report showed the shop had cleared enough to pay 6 per cent on the capital invested.

"We are quite elated," said Miss Agnes Nestor of the Women's Trade Union league. "We feel quite an interesting showing has been made. Last year was one of the worst in the glove business. But despite the bad year, the 'co-op' shop kept going steadily, seven and one-half hours a day, without losing a day. Good business management is the key."

Mexico Plans "Tree Day" to Beautify Its Villages

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
Mexico City, Jan. 13.—Mexico is to initiate a custom observed in the United States for many years—"tree day," on which trees will be planted all over the country. The plan is fostered by the Forest Society of Mexico. It is hoped that this tree day in the hands of educators will inspire a desire to plant trees and flowers in smaller Indian towns and villages.

Boston Evening Transcript's Record for 1921

The Transcript was the only
Boston paper to make a gain in total advertising for 1921

The TRANSCRIPT was first in total advertising among Boston evening papers not combined with morning editions. Its total was exceeded by a fraction of 1% by only one such combination.

The TRANSCRIPT gained in local advertising where its value is best known.

The TRANSCRIPT made the smallest loss in national advertising, both in amount and percentage.

The TRANSCRIPT carried more classified advertising than any other Boston daily, and was second to only one daily and Sunday paper combined. It made the greatest gain in classified of any Boston paper.

The TRANSCRIPT carried more book, resort and travel advertising than any other Boston paper.

The TRANSCRIPT carried more automobile advertising than any other Boston daily, and stood fourth among the daily and Sunday papers combined.

The TRANSCRIPT published more high grade financial advertising than any other Boston paper. One paper, combining both daily and Sunday, carried more lineage but much of it did not measure up to Transcript standards.

That Advertisers are turning more and more to the Transcript under current business conditions is shown by the fact that the Transcript was the only Boston daily or Sunday paper to show a gain for the year.

Does a woman love her husband less when children come?

WHICH comes first, a woman's love for her husband or her love for her babies? Which do you think should have the preference? Can a man become jealous of his own children? What would you do if your husband treated you as Duncan McKail treated Chaddie?

One of the most stupendous of all marriage problems is handled in a fascinating manner in "The Prairie Child," by Arthur Stringer, (author of "The Prairie Mother") beginning in Pictorial Review for February.

"The Prairie Mother" created a sensation last year in Pictorial Review and when it was running we received hundreds of letters from our readers saying they didn't believe that any man could have such an insight into the soul of a woman. They will say the same thing about "The Prairie Child." It is almost unbelievable that a man could have written it. Don't miss it for anything.

"The Prairie Child," by Arthur Stringer

Why has America one divorce in every nine marriages?

Should divorce be abolished altogether? Should it be made easier? Should marriage be made more difficult? Every woman in America should see Pictorial Review for February for the answers.

SEMI-FINALS IN CITY-WIDE SKATE TOURNEY TODAY

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Approximately 1,200 schoolboy skaters, representing Chicago's public schools and playgrounds, will compete in the semi-finals of the city-wide skating tourney today in eight sections of the city. Winners of the first three places in each race will qualify for the finals next Saturday at Garfield park. Today's events will start at 2:30 o'clock.

Following the (Tribune Photo.) finals, a skating team will be chosen to represent Chicago in a series of intercity meets. Events have been held for boys of various ages, so that champions in all age divisions from 12 years up will be determined.

Four Relays on Card.
In addition to the individual events on today's program there will be four relay races. Four man teams in the 12, 13, and 14 year old group will race 880 yards. The 15 and 16 year old class will take part in a one mile relay. The 17 and 18 year old class and 19 and 20 year division will race over the same distance.

In the individual events the contestants in the 12, 13, and 14 year old group will race 230 yards; 15 and 16 year old class, 440 yards; 17 and 18 year old class, 880 yards, and the same distance for the 19 and 20 year old group.

The semi-finals will be under charge of E. C. Delaporte, director of sports in the public schools, and Herman J. Fischer, acting superintendent of playgrounds. Directors have been assigned to take charge of the trials at each of the eight ponds, and the results will be published tomorrow.

Hyde Park at Jackson Park.
Only one change has been made in the place for holding the races today. The Hyde Park district races will be held on the Jackson park lagoon, instead of on the Midway.

Following are sites of today's races: Calumet district at Bessemer park, 80th street and South Chicago-av. Herman Roy in charge.

Hyde Park district at Jackson park. Harry F. Collins in charge.

Prover district at Cornell square, 51st and Wood streets. Nick Malloy in charge.

Lawndale district at Douglas park. Herman Kaskol in charge.

Central district at Eckhart park, Chicago avenue and Noble street. Charles Besta in charge.

Austin district at Columbus park. Henry Meyer in charge.

Lake View district at Hamilton park, Barry and Ashland avenues. E. H. Blohm in charge.

Harwood district at Keith pond, Kimball and Wilson avenues. Walter Sonnenleiter in charge.

Record Entry Expected.
With the large skating clubs and playground directors yet to be heard from, entries for the Tribune Silver Skates Derby to be held on the Humboldt park lagoon Feb. 5 have passed the century mark. With three weeks remaining before the contests are held it is expected the record entry of 688 of last year will be broken. The lists will close on Jan. 29.

Entry blanks will be issued tomorrow for the I. A. C. derby Feb. 26 at White City rink.

AUSTIN SKATING DERBY TONIGHT

The Austin Skating club will hold its annual derby tonight at Columbus park. Entry can be made with John Riley at the park for any event, up to 4:30 o'clock this afternoon, but contestants must report not later than 6:30 o'clock. The first event will start one hour later.

Roosevelt Post Bids for Meyers-Klonis Mat Bout

Capt. Jack Little of Roosevelt post of the American Legion yesterday entered the field of bidders for the wrestling match between Johnny Meyers and John Klonis. Capt. Little offered 56 per cent of the gross receipts for the match, which he would support by an interesting semi-windup and two preliminaries.

According to the managers of both grapplers, the match will be awarded today. Although Capt. Little's bid is higher than the one made by Bill Sims, location of suitable halls will be taken into consideration by the managers, who are anxious to make the award and start to advertise.

ST. PAUL GETS CATHYER GONZALES.
St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 13.—Miguel Gonzales, catcher for the last three years with the New York Nationals, has been acquired by the St. Paul club of the American association.

KILBANE BOARD OF STRATEGY

WHEN Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane first announced his intention to make a trip to Europe, "Ma" Kilbane (on the left) and 10 year old Mary (center of the photo) were against the scheme. They did not want "Daddy" to separate himself from the Cleveland freddie, even for the soft money of bouts with ambitious foreign ring men. But Johnny's latest remarks on his proposed trip show his caniness, for he contemplates taking Friend Wife abroad with him, and he won't fight anybody unless the foreign boxer comes back to America, where the dollar is supreme and the purse is paid in dollars. ## TUNNEY IS NEW CHAMP BY WIN OVER LEVINSKY

New York, Jan. 13.—[Special.]—A new American light heavyweight champion was crowned tonight in Madison Square Garden. While more than 14,000 people looked on, Gene Tunney of Greenwich Village, a pugilistic product of the late war, hammered his way to victory over Battling Levinsky, survivor of more than 300 battles in twelve years.

The victory carried with it the American title at 175 pounds, a championship Levinsky has held for five or six years. When Tunney received the judges' decision Levinsky walked over to him and congratulated him.

Levinsky weathered a trying storm in the sixth session. For a time it appeared that the bout would end in a knockout, after Gene crashed over a left to the jaw which sent Levinsky up against the ropes. But the veteran's defensive skill carried him through.

Barley Madden, west side heavyweight, held Fred Fulton of Minnesota to a draw in the twelve round semi-final. Madden conceded every physical advantage to his rival—weight, height, and reach—and then gave Fulton one of the hardest battles the Minnesotan ever experienced. He several times had Fulton on the verge of a knockout. Madden weighed 177 pounds, against Fulton's 212½.

Ed McCormick Wins Shoot at Lincoln Park Traps

Ed McCormick was high gun in the special tournament at the Lincoln park traps yesterday, breaking 99 targets in the 100 bird event from sixteen yards. F. G. Bills, professional, was second high with 97.

CARP MAY ASK SECOND BATTLE WITH DEMPSEY

LONDON, Jan. 13.—[By the Associated Press.]—Georges Carpentier, who decisively defeated George Cook of Australia here last night for the European heavyweight title, may ask another fight with Jack Dempsey after he meets Ted "Kid" Lewis, Francois Descamps, Carpentier's manager, said today.

The Frenchman's decisive victory over Cook is looked on in sporting circles here as disposing of recent reports that the European champion is in poor physical condition.

Carpenter weighed 170 pounds, nineteen pounds lighter than his opponent, but a 5 to 2 favorite. Ringside observers declared he had never appeared more fit.

RICKARD SHIES AT BOUT.
New York, Jan. 13.—"A return match between Carpentier and Dempsey would not draw expenses in this country," Tex Rickard, boxing promoter, said today.

"I have both Carpentier's and Descamps' assurance that they will return to this country early in March for the match with Tom Gibbons. The latter should make an excellent opponent for Georges and an interesting contest should result."

TAYLOR BREAKS CORBETT'S JAW IN THIRD ROUND

Bud Taylor of Terre Haute won over George Corbett on a technical knockout in three rounds last night before a suburban club. Corbett's jaw was broken, and he was unable to continue. In the preliminaries Charley Tremblay shaded George Welsh in six rounds, Gene Watson got a decision over Tommy O'Neill in six rounds, and Charley Glaser fought a six round draw with Harry Frazer.

M'DONALD COPHER COACH.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 13.—Appointment of I. D. MacDonald as hockey coach at University of Minnesota and the hockey schedule for the year were approved by the athletic board of control yesterday.

GILMORE, AT 68, WILL TRAVEL FISTIC PACES IN GYM HERE TODAY

LOCAL boxing fans, old timers especially, are taking a keen interest in the exhibition to be given at the Arcade today by Harry Gilmore, who will celebrate the thirty-fifth anniversary of his championship battle with Jack McAuliffe. Although 68 years of age, Gilmore can step at a lively clip for a few rounds. He will spar with Teddy Murphy, south side lightweight. Kid Howard, manager of the gymnasium, will present the veteran gladiator with a loving cup after the exhibition.

Jim Mullen, who is trying to arrange a match between Charley White and Benny Leonard for the lightweight title, yesterday asserted the match may be closed at any time.

Jimmy Kelly, local bantam, who will box Stanley Everett at Peoria Tuesday, will finish hard training today at the Arcade.

J. LYNCH STOPS PAT JOHNSON.
Syracuse, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Joe Lynch, former bantamweight champion, scored a technical knockout over Pasty Johnson, Syracuse, in six rounds tonight.

MANDELL SHADES ELIE IN MAIN GO ON COMMODORE

Sammy Mandell, clever Rockford bantam, defeated Jack Elle in the main event of the boxing show last night aboard the U. S. S. Commodore. Mandell won the popular decision by use of a good left hand and right crosses.

Elle continually assumed a side crouching position. When Elle did open up and fight Mandell peppered him with left jabs and rights. Mandell assumed his usual jumping jack tactics and did practically all the leading.

In the 130 pound semi-windup, Frankie Kennard of the stockyards won over Johnny Wrenn of South Chicago. Wrenn started to fight too late to overcome his opponent's advantage.

In the opening event Ray Jefferies, local 112 pounder, stopped Billy Snook of Chicago in the fifth round. Jefferies gave his opponent a lacing the first four rounds and when the bell sounded for the fifth Snook's second threw a towel into the ring.

John Brown, colored lightweight, knocked out "Young Danny" Arnshein in the second round. It was a wicked fight while it lasted, but Brown finally started a punch from the floor in the second session which landed on the button and Arnshein took the count.

A capacity crowd jammed the boat. Some were aldermen and city officials.

WINTERFRONT
Automatic Radiator Shutter

Opens and closes automatically. The Winterfront is a very simple and extremely effective device for automatically controlling the motor temperature. By keeping out all cold air it establishes summer condition for the motor in the shortest possible time. Reduces the use of the choke and the over-rich mixture that fills the crankcase with raw gas (kerosene) and the cylinders with carbon. Saves the motor. One repair bill saved will more than pay for the Winterfront. Used with much profit, pleasure and comfort from September to May. Sold and installed by motor car dealers.

(BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.)
Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—(Special.)—Declaring that a grave situation has developed to menace the future of the entire country, the advisory council of the federal reserve system presented a memorial to President Harding today protesting against legislation which would make mandatory the appointment of a "dirty" farmer as member of the federal reserve board.

President Harding signified that he approved their contention that a measure giving representation to any particular group would be objectionable class legislation and would lead to the injection of politics in the field of finance.

Want a Square Deal.
The advisory council gave approval to the bill, as reported by the senate committee on banking and currency, which merely provides that, in selecting the members of the federal board, the President should have due regard to "a fair representation of the different commercial, industrial, agricultural and geographical divisions."

Opposition was expressed to the amendment by Senator Smith (S. C.), which would in effect require the President to name a farmer when the term of Gov. W. P. G. Harding of the board expires in August.

Credit for the Farmer.
The advisory council's memorial approved the program of the joint commission of agricultural inquiry to extend the powers of the federal land banks to permit them to discount agricultural or live stock paper with maturities running from six months to three years, and redemptive this paper with federal reserve banks when its maturity falls below six months and when it conforms to the requirements of the federal reserve act.

M. J. McCORMICK, POLICEMAN 35 YEARS, RESIGNS
Policeman Martin J. McCormick, 65 years old, 4730 North St. Louis avenue, has tendered his resignation, to take effect tonight, after serving thirty-five years in the police department.

For twenty-four years he was stationed at State and Madison streets directing traffic in the days when it was the chief object of the patrolmen to escort women and children across in safety.

For the last ten years he has been detailed on the central station patrol wagon. All but one year of his service was spent at the central station. According to Lieut. Frank Matchett, Policeman McCormick has never been reprimanded by his superior officers or called before the police trial board.

PLAN BOATS ON SAG CHANNEL FOR USE OF FOREST PRESERVE

At the next meeting of the forest preserve commissioners, a resolution will be introduced by Commissioner Robert W. McKinlay, asking that a committee be appointed to confer with officials of the sanitary district of the Palos tract of the forest preserve, said to be the most beautiful piece of land owned by the forest preserve district of Cook county.

Commissioner McKinlay said the Sag channel would be completed within a year. At present visitors are four miles from the heart of the Palos tract when they leave the electric lines. He said boats with a capacity of fifty passengers could be operated on the channel at a profit.

DOCTORS ADVISE "SIAMESE TWINS" TO STAY UNITED
Physicians, after a thorough examination of Josefa and Rosa Blazek, "Siamese twins," yesterday decided it would be impossible to divide them. Their verdict was that while one might survive such an operation, it would mean death for the other.

The examination was held at the American hospital at the request of the twins. Both have worried lest one should die, thus imperiling the life of the other. On this point it was the judgment of the examining body that in the case of the death of one, an immediate operation might possibly save the other.

The women are 44 years old. Their parents were normal, they said, and their father is still living. The women are joined together at the waist, but with individual nervous systems, temperaments, and emotions. One of the women has a child 11 years old.

FORCE CHIEF TO FIGHT TO POLICE CAFE
Every effort is being made by Attorney Benjamin E. Cohen to prevent the police from enforcing an order of Chief of Police Fitzmorris closing a restaurant on the second floor of 22 North Wells street, which the chief asserts is a hangout for thieves.

The chief recommended that the license for the place be revoked last Tuesday. The licensee is Ida Frank, according to city records, but Chief Fitzmorris asserts that Michael ("Mike de Pike") Heitler is the real owner. Attorney Cohen has filed two petitions for injunctions to restrain the chief from policing the front of the restaurant. One he had dismissed; one is still pending before Judge Denis E. Sullivan in the Circuit court.

HARDING REGRETS SCORN OF MANY FOR "DRY" LAWS

Washington, D. C., Jan. 13.—(Special.)—President Harding views with grave misgivings the defiance of the prohibition law manifested by numerous communities.

When you find municipalities openly flouting the law an exceedingly serious question is presented to the whole country, according to the President.

Whether the President had in mind particularly the action of the Chicago city council in assailing the prohibition law, or the increasing violation of the law in New York and other large cities, does not appear.

W. Frank McClure Again Heads Advertising Council

W. Frank McClure has been re-elected head of the Advertising Council of the Chicago Association of Commerce, the largest advertising club in the world. This is the fourth time Mr. McClure has been chosen to head this council. Home J. Buckley and John H. Logeman have been elected vice chairmen. The council now numbers 1,800 members.

It was her Doctor's idea

MARY Josephine Murray gained only three-quarters of a pound the first three months she lived in this world. Then her doctor recommended Borden's Eagle Brand Milk. "She commenced to gain at once," Mrs. Murray reports, and six months later she had become a normal, healthy child. On her first birthday she weighed 23 lbs., 5 oz.

"Our doctor always speaks of her as a fine, healthy specimen of babyhood," writes Mary's mother. "She is such a good, happy baby and sleeps all night long."

Naturally, her doctor's sensible advice as well as her mother's care have contributed largely to Mary's wonderful health, even though her mother feels that she owes it all to Eagle Brand. But many thousands of other mothers have found Eagle Brand the best food for their babies. And a great many doctors recommend it—just as Mary's doctor did—in difficult feeding cases where the child was underweight or not gaining as it should.

A child's health is so largely dependent on its food, that no mother can afford to experiment. Nurse your baby, if you can, of course, but if for any reason mother's milk fails, don't risk foods of which you are not sure.

Borden's Eagle Brand Milk has been the standard for a great many years. For it is nothing but milk—pure country milk combined with sugar. It is the natural food when mother's milk is not available. Your grocer has Eagle Brand. You'll find it always pure and uniform.

The January Sale of Girls' new gingham frocks at 5.75 and 8.75

The frocks at 5.75 are in brown, navy, red and green checks, and trimmed with cross-stitchery and appliqued organdie flowers. Sketched.

Two 8.75 frocks of imported checked gingham are pictured; one has pipings and sash of white organdie; the other bands of emb. white linen; 6 to 14 years.

Girls' tub frocks reduced—95c to 3.75

The past season's stock, radically reduced for clearance, includes smart frocks of chambrays and plaid gingham, suitably suitable for school wear.

REPORT
EUROPE'S FIGHT TO BALANCE TRADE

BY O. A. MATHER.

The struggle of the rest of the world, particularly Europe, to balance its trade with the United States, which was the greatest seller during the war, is shown in foreign trade statistics issued yesterday by the department of commerce.

In 1921 the value of American exports was only slightly more than one-half the value of 1920 exports, the figures being $4,485,000,000, compared with $8,225,000,000. At the same time imports in 1921 were less than one-half those of 1920, the figures being $2,608,000,000, compared with $5,775,000,000. Thus our favorable balance of trade was $1,877,000,000 in 1921, a decrease of nearly a billion dollars.

December Illustrates Trend.

The trend of international trade, however, is better illustrated by the December figures. While our exports last month showed an increase of $1,000,000 over November, the value was only $4,414,000,000, a decrease of 41 per cent of December, 1920, exports. On the other hand, our imports last month showed an increase of $25,000,000 over November and were only about 12 per cent less than those of November. Our favorable balance of trade last month was only $59,000,000, compared with $454,000,000 in December, 1920.

December exports totaled $2,608,000,000, compared with $2,600,000,000 in November, and $2,600,000,000 in December, 1920. December imports totaled $2,608,000,000, compared with $2,600,000,000 in November, and $2,600,000,000 in December, 1920.

Blames Drop in Prices.

The commerce department attributes much of the reduction in the value of our exports to the decline in the value of our commodities which make up the bulk of our foreign trade, saying that the lower values "do not represent corresponding declines in volume of trade."

This might be true roughly for the whole year, but it hardly squares with the December figures. Our December exports in value were only 41 per cent of those of December, 1920, whereas Bradstreet's price average on Dec. 1, 1920, was only 12 per cent below Dec. 1, 1921. Further, the decline in the value of our exports in December, 1921, was only 12 per cent below December, 1920. This marks the effort of other nations to balance their trade with us.

The tremendous flow of gold to this country, which now exceeds in our hands more than 40 per cent of the world's total monetary stock, is shown in the fact that last year we received $667,000,000 more gold than we sent abroad, whereas in 1920 we received only $60,000,000 more than we exported. Gold imports in December, however, were the lowest for any month last year.
